23 COMES NOW the plaintiff, UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, by and through 24 its counsel, Karen P. Hewitt, United States Attorney, and Steve 25 Miller, Assistant United States Attorney, and hereby files its
26 response and opposition to defendants' above-referenced motions. Said
27 response is based upon the files and records of this case, together 28 with the attached statement of facts, memorandum of points and authorities.

I

STATEMENT OF FACTS

On March 1, 2007, defendant RAMON ESPERANZA CARRILLO was convicted of 8 U.S.C. § 1326 in the District of California New Mexico and was sentenced to 15 months in prison. Defendant had been deported twice. His latest deportation was after serving his sentence when he was removed through El Paso Del Norte, Texas on April 1, 2008.

Nine days later, on April 10, 2008, Border Patrol agents located defendant after following footprints in the brush four miles north of the border and 25 miles east of the Tecate Port of Entry. The agents discovered defendant while he hid among a set of boulders with five other aliens. In the field, defendant admitted that he was a Mexican citizen with no legal right to be in the United States.

POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

A. THE GOVERNMENT HAS AND WILL CONTINUE TO COMPLY WITH RULE 16 OF THE FEDERAL RULES OF CRIMINAL PROCEDURE

The Government has provided numerous pages of voluntary discovery. Government will continue to provide voluntary discovery when it becomes available and will comply with Rule 16 and its obligations under Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963), and 18 U.S.C. § 3500.

The Government gives specific notice of its intent to offer evidence of other acts under Rule 404(b). By this notice, the Government reserves the right to offer any evidence, of any act, that was performed by the defendant, that is referenced in any of the discovery. These acts include, but are not limited to any of defendant's prior crossings, prior deportations, prior statements

1 regarding citizenship and any prior felony. The Government also
2 intends to use evidence related to his prior arrest and conviction for
3 8 U.S.C. § 1326 as relevant evidence of defendant's alienage and the 4 fact that he had been deported. The acts also include, but are not
5 limited to events that only become relevant once defendant's theory
6 of the case is revealed.

7 B. THE GOVERNMENT DOES NOT INTEND TO OFFER DEFENDANT'S
8 STATEMENTS FROM THE DAY OF HIS ARREST

9 Defendant moved this court to suppress the statements he made to 10 the Border Patrol Agents. Defendant invoked his right to an attorney.
11 However, the Government will offer defendant's sworn statements he 12 made to the immigration judge and the New Mexico District Court when 13 he admitted the elements of the same offense for which he is currently 14 charged. Nor is there any need to hold an evidentiary hearing to 15 determine the voluntariness of his sworn statements, in the presence
16 of his counsel, at a time a Federal District Court Judge necessarily 17 found his plea to be knowing and voluntary.

18 C. DEFENDANT'S MOTION TO DISMISS BECAUSE OF ALLEGED
19 ERROR IN THE GRAND JURY INSTRUCTIONS SHOULD BE DENIED

20 Defendant argues that the indictment should be dismissed because 21 of various instructions that were or were not given to the grand jury.
22 United States v. Marcucci, 299 F.3d 1156 (9th Cir. 2002), and United 23 States v. Navarro-Vargas, 408 F.3d 1184 (9th Cir. 2005), is 24 dispositive on this issue and defendant's motion should be summarily
25 denied.

1 D. ANY LEAVE FOR DEFENDANT TO FILE FURTHER
2 MOTIONS SHOULD BE STRICTLY LIMITED

3 While the government recognizes this court's discretion to permit
4 defendant to file further motions, the Government does oppose
5 defendant's motion to the extent it is conjectural, overly broad and 6 invites abuse. Any need for further motions should be justified at 7 the time they are filed, permitting both the Government to oppose on 8 a motion-by-motion basis and this court to determine if such motions
9 could in fact have been filed earlier. Any other course would invite 10 an interminable and protracted motion practice, resulting in delay of 11 trial.

12 E. THE GOVERNMENT'S MOTION FOR RECIPROCAL
13 DISCOVERY SHOULD BE GRANTED

14 1. Rule 16(b)

15 The defendant has invoked Federal Rule of Criminal
16 Procedure 16(a) in his motion for discovery. In addition, the 17 Government voluntarily will comply with the requirements of Federal 18 Rule of Criminal Procedure 16(a). Thus, the 16(b) provision of that 19 rule are operable as to defendant.

20 The Government, pursuant to Rule 16(b), hereby requests the 21 defendant to permit the Government to inspect, copy, and photograph
22 any and all books, papers, documents, photographs, tangible objects,
23 or make copies of portions thereof, which are within the possession,
24 custody or control of defendant and which he intends to introduce as 25 evidence in his case in chief at trial.

26 The Government further requests that it be permitted to inspect
27 and copy or photograph any results or reports of physical or mental 28 examinations and of scientific tests or experiments made in connection

1 with this case, which are in the possession or control of the 2 defendant, which he intends to introduce as evidence in chief at the
3 trial or which were prepared by a witness whom the defendant intends
4 to call as a witness. The Government also requests that the Court
5 make such orders as it deems necessary under Rule 16(d)(1) and (2) to 6 ensure that the Government receives the discovery to which it is 7 entitled.

8 2. Rule 26.2

9 Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 26.2 requires the production
10 of prior statements of all witnesses except the defendant. The Rule
11 thus provides for the reciprocal production of Jencks statements. As 12 stated in pertinent part:

13 After a witness other than the defendant has testified on
14 direct examination, the court, on motion of a party who did
15 not call the witness, shall order the attorney . . . to 16 produce, for the examination and use of the moving party,
17 any statement of the witness that is in their possession .
18 . . .

19 Fed. R. Crim. P. 26.2(a).

20 The time frame established by the Rule requires the statement to 21 be provided after the witness has testified, as in the Jencks Act.
22 Therefore, the Government hereby requests that defendant be ordered
23 to supply all prior statements of defense witnesses by a reasonable
24 date before trial to be set by the court. This order should include
25 any form these statements are memorialized in including, but not
26 limited to, tape recordings, handwritten or typed notes and reports.

1 F. THE GOVERNMENT'S MOTION FOR FINGER
2 PRINTS SHOULD BE GRANTED

3 The Government moves this court to permit the Government's
4 fingerprint expert to take defendant's fingerprints in anticipation
5 of trial testimony linking defendant to the warrant of deportation.

7 III

8 CONCLUSION

9 For the foregoing reasons, the Government respectfully requests
10 that defendant's motions be denied and the Government motions be 11 granted.

12 DATED: June 9, 2008.

13 Respectfully submitted,
